Part II: The Commandments (Chapter 15)

The Two Great Commandments

- Faith Proven by Deeds
- Accenting the Positive

The Two Great Commandments of Jesus Christ

- A lawyer asked Jesus “Which is the greatest commandment of the Law”
 - Jesus replied “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all you soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And the second is like it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets” (Mt 22:37-40; Du 6:5; Lev 19:18)

- Love and sacrifice are synonymous
- God loves us and has given us His laws of love to make us happy here and in Heaven
- But, there are consequences for disobeying His laws (Sin)
- Jesus summed up God's Law in these two commandments we just discussed:
 - Love God with your whole heart, soul, mind and love your neighbor as yourself

The Two Great Commandments

- Types of law:
 - Physical law – laws of nature (gravity)
 - Natural law – our nature as a human person (conscience)
 - Divine Positive law - the prescriptions that God has communicated to man

- Divine Positive law

- The sum total of all the prescriptions that God has communicated to man via supernatural revelation
 - Sacred Scriptures
 - Sacred Tradition
- It governs acts that are good or evil because God has so designated them as such
 - Some acts are intrinsically evil

- ▶ Moral law – Norm of human conduct from God (revealed or known by reason) and is binding on our conscience
 - For a moral act to be good the following must be good:
 - Object
 - Intended end
 - Circumstances

The Two Great Commandments (Cont)

- Accenting the Positive
 - The 10 Commandments contain a list of our principle duties to God and to neighbor
 - 1 through 3 are to God
 - 4 through 10 are to our neighbor
 - All of God's laws are aimed at our happiness
 - When we obey His Commandments we live a life of virtue

The Decalogue

- What is a commandment?
 - An authoritative mandate; edict; order, law
- What does “Decalogue” mean?
 - “Ten words” (phrases) which sum up the Law given by God to the people of Israel in the context of the Covenant mediated by Moses
 - They contain the fundamental duties of man toward God and toward his neighbor
 - First three - love God
 - The other seven - love neighbor

The Two Great Commandments (Cont)

- We show our love for God and neighbor by living out the:

Seven Corporal Works of Mercy (trifold handout)

- Feeding the hungry
- Giving drink to the thirsty
- Clothing the naked
- Sheltering the homeless
- Visiting the sick
- Visiting the imprisoned
- Burying the dead

The Two Great Commandments (Cont)

- The Seven Spiritual Works of Mercy (trifold handout)
 - Admonishing the sinner
 - Instructing the ignorant
 - Counseling the doubtful
 - Comforting the sorrowful
 - Forgiving all injustices
 - Bearing wrongs patiently
 - Praying for the living and the dead
- The circle of our prayers must encompass the world as does the love of God

- What importance does the Church give to the Decalogue?
 - The Church, in fidelity to Scripture and to the example of Christ, acknowledges the primordial importance and significance of the Decalogue. Christians are obliged to keep it
- Is it possible to keep the Decalogue?
 - Yes, because Christ without whom we can do nothing enables us to keep it with the gift of his Spirit and his grace

The 10 Commandments

- The listing of the 10 Commandments can be found in:
 - Exodus 20:1-17,
 - Deuteronomy 5:4-21

The 10 Commandments

- I. I am the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not have strange gods before Me
- II. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain
- III. Remember to keep holy the Lord's day
- IV. Honor thy father and thy mother
- V. Thou shalt not kill
- VI. Thou shalt not commit adultery
- VII. Thou shalt not steal
- VIII. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor
- IX. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife
- X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's goods

Versions of the Ten Commandments Vary by Tradition

JEWISH VERSION

1. I the Lord am your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, the house of bondage.
2. You shall have no other gods besides Me.
3. You shall not swear falsely by the name of the Lord your God.
4. Remember the sabbath day and keep it holy.
5. Honor your father and your mother.
6. You shall not murder.
7. You shall not commit adultery.
8. You shall not steal.

"A Traditional Catechetical Formula" in Catechism of the Catholic Church (U.S. Catholic Conference, 1991).

PROTESTANT VERSION

1. I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
2. You shall not make yourself a graven image.
3. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.
4. Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days you shall labor, and do all your work.
5. Honor your father and your mother.
6. You shall not kill.
7. You shall not commit adultery.
8. You shall not steal.
9. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
10. You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or . . . anything that is your neighbor's.

Based on the Book of Confessions (Presbyterian Church USA, 1991).

Part II: The Commandments (Chapter 16)

- The First Commandment of God
 - Our First Duty
 - Sins Against Faith
 - Hope and Love
 - Sacrilege and Superstition

The First Commandment of God

- “I am the Lord your God, you shall not have false gods before me”
 - We are called to give honor and glory to God
 - An act of faith is an act of worship
 - We make an act of faith by expressing our belief in God
 - We need to examine our conscience daily

- Sins against the faith
 - Apostasy – the abandonment of the faith
 - laxity or laziness toward the faith
 - intellectual pride where we know better than the church
 - Heresy – the rejection of one or more of the truths (dogmas) taught by the Church

- Hope and love – like a child's belief in a parent
 - Sins against hope
 - Presumption – assuming that no matter what we do we will be saved
 - Despair – believing that God cannot forgive our sins
- God resides in the will not in the emotions

- Sacrilege and Superstition
 - We can lose our faith unless we live it
 - We must avoid bad company and temptations
 - We need a well-formed conscience
 - We must not commit sacrilege against sacred persons, places or things
 - We must avoid superstitions
 - We should pray through the Blessed Mother and the Saints

- We are called to love as God loves which means loving all persons.
- We must:
 - Be charitable – love all
 - Avoid scandal – which would bring another to sin
 - Avoid hatred – willing that evil befall another
 - Avoid envy – desire to have what others have
 - Avoid sloth – spiritual laziness
- A good simple definition of love:
 - To will the good of the other

Part II: The Commandments (Chapter 17)

The Second and Third Commandments of God

- Holy Is His Name
- “Bless and Do Not Curse”
- Why Sunday Mass?

The Second Commandment of God

- “You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain”
 - Holy is His name
 - YHWH and Moses, importance of a name
 - Taking His name in vain:
 - Profanity
 - Taking an invalid oath (false swearing)
 - Breaking or rashly making a vow (Religious and Evangelical Councils of poverty, chastity and obedience)
 - Cursing
 - Blasphemy

- Bless and do not curse
 - Everything God has created is “good”
 - To curse is to wish an evil upon some person, place or thing
 - It is always a sin to wish evil on another
- Blasphemy is when we speak of God, the saints or holy objects in a spirit of contempt or vicious spirit

- The other (positive) side of this commandment:
 - Honor God's name in vows or oaths
 - Show of respect for his name by bowing the head or tipping the hat at his name
 - Responding with "Blessed be God," or the Name of Jesus when others abuse His name
 - Rejoicing at the hearing of His name in liturgies: Gloria, Sanctus, Glory be to the Father

The Third Commandment of God

- “You shall keep holy the Sabbath day”
 - Why the Sunday Mass?
 - Old Testament – Saturday Sabbath
 - Given to Moses by God
 - Sunset Friday to Sunset Saturday
 - New Testament – Sunday
 - Sacred Tradition
 - Celebrates the Resurrection

The Third Commandment of God (Cont)

- How to keep it holy
 - Physically and mentally attend the entire Mass
 - Six days contains 144 hours for all our activities. Giving one hour on the seventh day to worship God is not much of an obligation (leaving 23 for rest and recreation)

- The key sin against this commandment is missing the Mass or doing servile work on Sunday
- The questions we should ask include:
 - Is the work more mental than physical?
 - Is the work genuinely necessary?
 - Could it be done on another day?
- If unsure discuss it with a priest

Part II: The Commandments (Chapter 18)

The Fourth and Fifth Commandments of God

- Parents, Children and Citizens
- Life Belongs to God

The Fourth Commandment of God

- “Honor your father and mother”
 - Children have a responsibility or duty toward their parents to include obedience to their lawful authority
 - When parents get older children have a responsibility to provide care for them
 - After their death the children are to pray for the souls of their parents

- Parents have responsibilities to provide Natural, Spiritual and Supernatural Needs to their children to include:
 - Providing for their physical care
 - Raising them to be good citizens
 - Providing for their intellectual development
 - Providing for their spiritual development
 - Baptism and the other sacraments
 - Religious education

- We also are responsible for ourselves and our children to become good citizens
 - Obey the laws
 - Pay our taxes
- Being a good parent begins by being a good husband and wife and loving each other

The Fifth Commandment of God

- “You shall not kill”
 - Only God gives human life and only God can lawfully take it away except for:
 - Self-defense
 - Just War theory
 - The nation must be defending its right in a grave matter
 - War is undertaken as a last resort
 - War is waged under the dictates of natural law and international law
 - War must be stopped as soon as due satisfaction has been given or offered by the unjust aggressor nation

- Capital punishment

- The Church teaches that lawful states may impose capital punishment in some instance
- Pope John Paul II as a private theologian proposed that there are only a few very primitive nations that do not have recourse to other means of punishing those who commit these crimes

- Sins against the 5th Commandment:

- Murder
 - Abortion
 - Euthanasia
- Physical harm to another
- Failure to maintain a healthy body
- Hatred or unrighteous anger
- Leading others to serious sin
- Destroying another's reputation

The 10 Commandments

- I. I am the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not have strange gods before Me
- II. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain
- III. Remember to keep holy the Lord's day
- IV. Honor thy father and thy mother
- V. Thou shalt not kill
- VI. Thou shalt not commit adultery
- VII. Thou shalt not steal
- VIII. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor
- IX. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife
- X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's goods

Transition

- Next time we will continue looking at the Commandments in:
 - Chapter 19 -The Sixth and Ninth Commandments of God
 - Chapter 20 -The Seventh and Tenth Commandments of God
 - Chapter 21 - The Eighth Commandment of God
 - Chapter 22 - The Commandments of the Church
