Pastor's Corner

Holy Week begins Today. One of the keys to Lent is meditation on our Lord's Sacred Passion—His suffering and death. This week we do this in a particularly intense way, as we spiritually place ourselves with Our Lord as He suffers in His last hours: as He agonizes in the garden, is scourged, spat upon, mocked, and crowned with thorns; as He carries the cross, is nailed to it and hung upon it for three hours to die an excruciating death. We look upon Jesus enduring all this, and remember that He did this all out of love for His Father and, most amazingly, out of love for us: to pay for our sins (our failures to love God and our neighbor), to save us from eternal damnation, and to enable us to share in His own glorious life. He suffered all this not in spite of the fact that we don't love Him as we should, but because of that fact: He loves us and wants to save us from our lack of love.

Who can look at this and not be overwhelmed, not simply with grief for His suffering, but also with love for Him who has loved us so much? How can we not open our hearts to Him, and see that our sins are not worth causing Him this pain, not worth walking away from the One who loves us so incredibly? How can we not ask ourselves why we love our sins so much, when we should be loving Him instead? How can we see His love and not recognize that the way we love Him and each other falls so far short of this standard? How can we see all this and not open our hearts to the grace that flows from His sacred wounds to help us to love as we should?

For almost 40 days we've been trying to grow in love through Christ's grace and our Lenten penances. Most of us have met with mixed results. But we have one more week: let's resolve to make it a truly "holy" week centered on Jesus' suffering and ineffable love.

We can do this in many ways, beginning with redoubling our personal efforts of Lenten prayers, sacrifices and acts of charity. But we also do so in a wonderful way by joining in the works of the Church, especially by coming together for the special liturgies of this Holy Week.

We have begun this today, with this unique Mass of Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord, with the blessed Palms, the Solemn Entrance and reading of the Passion.

Then on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, come to daily Mass—let's fill the church with prayer! I know it can be inconvenient for you, but the scourging at the pillar was more than "inconvenient" for Our Lord. And don't forget Adoration/Exposition on Wednesday. And if you haven't been yet this Lent, come to Confession—our Lord awaits you there, to wash you clean with the grace pouring from His side on the Cross. We have confessions every day (except Holy Thursday and Easter Sunday) with extra priests all week. (Please see the schedule inserted in this bulletin for all the special events and liturgies of this week.)

On Holy Thursday, there is no Mass during the day, but in the evening join us here in the parish as Lent officially ends and the Triduum ("three days") begins as we celebrate The Mass of The Lord's Supper, commemorating the institution of the Sacraments of the Eucharist and Priesthood. Afterwards, we walk with the Lord to the Garden of Gethsemane as we process with the Eucharist to an altar in the Parish Hall, where the Lord invites you to "remain here, and watch with me...watch and pray," for at least a few minutes or until midnight.

Then comes Good Friday, the holiest day of the year. It is a day of fasting and abstinence as we share in the suffering of the Lord. We should keep the day with quiet, reflection, and charity—even at work—especially from noon to three. There is no Mass; instead, we gather in the church at 3:00 in the afternoon, the hour of our Lord's death, for the solemn Celebration of the Passion of the Lord. I beg you not to miss it, even if it means leaving work early! This is the highpoint of Lent, the holiest hour of the year—come and be with the Church to worship Christ at the foot of His Cross, at the hour of His death; what in the world could be more important than this?!

We begin this Liturgy with the priest silently entering the bare sanctuary (all decoration is removed and the tabernacle is empty) and prostrating himself before the altar, and we all join him by kneeling. We then read the Passion in narrative/dialogue form, from the Gospel of John. After the readings, the priest prays ten ritual intercessions, calling down our Lord's mercy on the Church and the world.

Then the priest brings a large crucifix to the sanctuary, and the people come forward to personally venerate the Cross, by a genuflection, kiss, or some other gesture. While this ritual veneration can take some time to complete, I'm always amazed and moved how everyone seems to embrace this, as the beautiful strains of our choir and the solemn atmosphere of the church help us to place ourselves for a few minutes next to the Blessed Mother, St. John and St. Mary Magdalene who waited for three hours at the foot of the Cross. After veneration, the priests bring the Blessed Sacrament (consecrated at Mass the night before) from the sacristy and the faithful receive Holy Communion. Afterwards the Cross is left in the sanctuary for those who wish to venerate it later in the day. Stations of the Cross are prayed at 7:00pm.

On Holy Saturday the Church continues its somber reflective mood, as She strongly encourages us to voluntarily continue to fast and abstain from meat as we do on Good Friday. Mass is never offered during the day on Holy Saturday, but at 8:30pm (after sunset) the celebration of Easter Sunday begins with the Easter Vigil Mass. It is the "Mother" of all liturgies with all sorts of unique ceremonies: the blessing and presentation of the Easter Candle; the chanting of the Exsultet; a greatly extended Liturgy of the Word; and Baptism, reception into the Church, and Confirmation for adults and several older children. It is a glorious Mass, and I encourage all to attend. (However, lasting two hours, I must give fatherly caution that it can be tough for little ones).

This is a wondrous week, the holiest week of the year. Let's not squander this opportunity to change our lives so bereft of true love, to get caught up in the awesomeness of the Love of Christ Jesus.

Fasting and Abstinence

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of both fasting and abstinence, and every Friday in Lent is a day of abstinence. Failure to "substantially" keep these penances is grave matter (e.g., potentially a mortal sin). The law of abstinence requires that no meat may be eaten on these days, and binds all Catholics who are 14 years old or older. No other penance may be substituted. The law of fasting binds those who are between the ages of 18 and 59. The Church defines "fasting," for these purposes, as having only one full meal a day, with two additional smaller meals permitted, but only as necessary to keep up strength and so small that if added together they would not equal a full meal. Snacking is forbidden, but that does not include drinks that are not of the nature of a meal. Even though these rules do not bind all age groups, all are encouraged to follow them to the extent possible. The sick, pregnant or nursing mothers, and other folks with special physical circumstances may be partially or totally exempt from these rules—use good judgment and take care of yourself.

Church Persecuted

Last week we presented some portions of the Fairfax County Public School (FCPS) Family Life education (FLE) program. This program has been in place for at least 30 years and is very aggressive in presenting information in the classroom which should be reserved for discussions between the child and parent. FCPS makes it very difficult for parents to review the program materials.

Fortunately, <https://parentandchild.org/> was formed in 2017 by some Fairfax County parents whose children attend or graduated from FCPS. They believe that parents need to know what's being taught in the FLE lessons and decide for themselves if these lessons are appropriate for their children. They have produced the Family Life Education Lesson Reviews (2022-2023).

The parent group reviewed each individual lesson of the FLE program and provided the results at the website listed above using a red, yellow, green scoring system. Moreover, it appears to be an honest review, in that if there are some good things being taught, the reviewers noted that with a green light. For example,

First grade: GREEN "Students are taught to identify responsibilities of different family members and that if each family member takes care of his or her responsibilities, it makes it easier for the family to function."

On the other hand...

Tenth grade: RED "Students discuss three options available in the event of an unplanned pregnancy: Keep and parent the baby, adoption, abortion. Teacher's notes state that young women can obtain abortion without parental consent using free legal services."

Angelus Academy

Where the truth of Catholic teaching takes flesh in the lives of Pre-K - 8th graders and their families.

Do you have any shoes you no longer love, but that are still in good condition? Angelus Academy is holding a "Shoe Drive" fundraiser to collect new and gently used shoes, boots, and cleats. We are paid by the pound and need help reaching our goal of 2,500 pairs of footwear before April 20th. Please consider donating; it supports our school, and it helps clean out your closet! You can contact parishioner Heather Ruffner at hruffner@angelusacademy.org to make arrangements for pickup/drop-off. All money raised by this event goes directly to school operations. God Bless!

Thank you for your continued prayers and support.
