Pastor's Corner

This Week's column taken from the November 10, 2024 bulletin

NOVEMBER: PRAYING FOR THE DEAD.

November is a month in which Catholics are called to particularly pray for all the souls in Purgatory.

Many Catholics nowadays wrongly think Purgatory is an outdated remnant from the Middle Ages, even though Christian belief in Purgatory is rooted in Jewish doctrine (2 Maccabees 12), and was well established in the early Church. Many other Catholics, in their grief, prefer to think of their departed loved ones as already being in Heaven, and can't bear the thought that they might be in Purgatory.

But the doctrine of Purgatory is not something to fear, because it is a doctrine of God's mercy, and reflects the reality that none of us is perfect. All of us sin or cling to things of this world—however small or seemingly insignificant. But Scripture tells us “nothing imperfect shall enter” into Heaven (Rev. 21:27)—and rightly so, since Heaven is about perfect happiness, perfect love, etc... Given this, and confident in Our Lord's desire for all to be with Him in Heaven, Christians have always believed that between death and Heaven there is a purification, or purgation, where we're cleansed from all imperfections, i.e., made perfect. This state, or “place,” we call Purgatory.

Now, we must remember that Purgatory is NOT anything like Hell, and all the Souls in Purgatory are good and “worthy” of eternal joy in Heaven—we call them the “Holy Souls.” So thinking of them as in Purgatory is not an insult but praise. Moreover, these Souls are certain they are going to Heaven, so they are filled with joy beyond anything experienced on earth.

But we must also remember that there is suffering in Purgatory. The simplest way for many of us to understand this is to think of the suffering related to change. All change is difficult. Consider the person who is trying to lose weight, or exercising for an athletic competition. The effort involved in change is painful, but as you see progress you are also invigorated and happy, seeing your goal approach.

Even so, since 1) Purgatory involves pain, and 2) we want our beloved dead to swiftly enter the joys of Heaven, we should never neglect praying for them. And if they are already in Heaven, no prayer is wasted, since every prayer is an act of love, and they hear each prayer as telling how much we love them.

So in love, let us pray for our beloved dead this month, and for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, especially the “most abandoned,” the souls who no one else remembers to pray for.

“Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls, and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace.”

Offering Masses: “Mass Intentions.” The greatest prayer Christians can offer is the Sacrifice of the Mass. We remember that at each Mass the one and only Sacrifice of the Cross on Calvary is made present. This Sacrifice of Jesus was and is the greatest prayer ever offered: God the Son's great offering to the Father for the expiation of sins and salvation of the world. Because of this, the graces that flow from the Mass are infinite and that grace produces various “fruits,” or benefits: impetratory fruits (spiritual and temporal benefits), propitiatory fruits (forgiveness of sins), and satisfactory fruits (remission of temporal punishment).

The Tradition teaches that these fruits flow to: 1) the whole Church (“general fruits”), 2) those participating in the particular Mass (“special fruits”), to the priest himself (“personal fruits”), and to those for whom the priest is offering the Mass (“ministerial fruits”).

This last type of fruit, ministerial, is what we usually mean when we speak the priest “offering a Mass” for a particular intention, or when the Mass Intention” is announced in the bulletin or at Mass. (Note: contrary to what some seem to think, when this “Mass Intention” is for a person(s), this is not meant to publicly honor that person, nor is the congregation required to pray for the person. The Mass honors God; it bears fruit in us, including the person it is offered for.)

These ministerial fruits have infinite power—they flow from the infinite perfect Sacrifice of the Cross. But they are limited by the disposition of the person who receives them. So, for example, when you receive the Sacrament of Penance, you receive all the grace you need to never sin again, but you benefit from that grace only to the extent to cooperate with it, or are “open to it.” Grace isn't magic, that immediately turns a sinner into a saint. Grace is a gift, that if you chose to use will help you become a saint.

So, when a priest offers the Mass for John, John receives infinite graces, but they are only beneficial to him if he is disposed to let them benefit him. So, if John has his heart set on sinning, but has a small opening in his heart to God, then he will benefit from the infinite fruits of the Mass only a small amount.

The same is true for the Souls in Purgatory. So, when a Mass is offered for a Jane in Purgatory, the Mass will benefit her only to the extent she is purified and is open to that fruit. Because we understand Purgation as sort of a process of purifying and that some souls need more purification than others, the Soul in Purgatory benefits from ministerial fruits of the Mass in a powerful but limited way: they are not yet perfectly open to them, but they are more and more perfectly open to them. So that when multiple Masses are offered for a Soul, he/she will benefit more and more as he/she becomes more and more perfectly disposed to the fruits.

So, “offering Masses” for the dead is absolutely the best way we can help them in their purification/perfection.

Oremus pro invicem, patria, defunctorumque. Fr. De Celles

ST. RAYMOND'S RESPECTS LIFE

Some may remember but others may not.... that early on Sunday morning, November 14th, 2010, a newborn baby girl was discovered in a gym bag in our church parking lot near the Divine Mercy banner. By the grace of God, Sofi was in good health and adopted into a loving Christian family. Sofi is now a beautiful young lady, a freshman in highschool, celebrating her 15th birthday. Please offer a prayer of thanksgiving for Sofi's life, for the well-being of the birth mom who knew enough to bravely entrust her baby to our parish and for Sofi's forever family. Life, what a beautiful gift!

MaRiH Pregnancy Care Center... is very grateful for our continued support! Donations welcome in the narthex collection box near the elevator. THE POWER OF PRAYER. Abortionists and those who work in the abortion industry trespass against us. Yet how much more they offend Almighty God! Every abortion deforms the abortionist and desensitizes him or her to the humanity of both the mother and child violated through abortion. Pray fervently for the conversion of abortionists. Somehow, they have been led astray by greed, ignorance, a misguided sense of compassion or perhaps evil itself. Our Wrapped In Love program is up and stitching. Eternal Father, I offer You the most Precious Blood of Your Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the Universal Church, those in my own home, and within my family. Amen.

Attention, families with students in sacramental preparation: Please remember the requirement for students in grades 2, 7, and 8 to turn in a Mass attendance card each weekend. Please contact the Religious Education office with any questions or concerns.

Important Schedule Reminder: For the Thanksgiving holiday, there will be no class on Mon. Nov. 24 and Sun. Nov. 30. Please check your CCD calendar carefully.

CHURCH PERSECUTED

Last Monday, the U.S. Supreme Court declined to take up a challenge to the 2015 Obergefell v. Hodges which legitimized so-called same-sex marriage. The case has been winding through the courts for the past 10+ years involving Kim Davis, a Rowan County, Kentucky, clerk of courts who refused to issue a marriage license to a same-sex couple. She served 10 days in jail and had to pay a $360,000 fine for damages and lawyer fees for her decision. She finally petitioned the U.S. Supreme Court which opted not to take up the case. The Court offered no comment in its rejection of the matter to include dissenting opinions.

While no one (other than the nine justices) knows the rationale for the Court's action, there have been several theories as to why it was not taken up. This was not a good case to overturn Obergefell noted Thomas Jipping, senior legal fellow at the Heritage Foundation. On "EWTN News Nightly" he said, "The First Amendment applies differently with regard to the actions of public officials than private individuals." Davis "was acting in her official capacity as a county clerk, and that's a very different legal question." Tipping went on to say that reversing Obergefell would require someone to challenge a state law in conflict with the current precedent.

Mary Hasson from the Ethics and Public Policy Center and past speaker at St. Raymond's parish agreed with Jipping that "it was not the right vehicle to reconsider the Obergefell decision."

A 2024 Pew poll indicated that about 70% of Americans identifying themselves as Catholic support same-sex marriage. This actually is "slightly higher than the population as a whole." Hasson noted that "It's a scandal that 70% of self-described Catholics support so-called same sex marriage." This is contrary to our Catholic faith which teaches in the Catechism that "The vocation of marriage is written in the very nature of man and woman as they came from the hand of the Creator."
