Guidelines for Selecting a Confirmation Name

For Confirmation, you receive another name in addition to your Baptismal name to remind you (1) that you are to place yourself under the protection of another patron saint, who is your advocate before God; and (2) that you are to imitate the exemplary life of the new patron. You may choose a name to honor that saint and/or to make that saint your special patron. You should make it a habit to pray to this saint as you prepare to receive the sacrament of Confirmation.

Good websites that you may find helpful in selecting your Confirmation name are:

Check here to find a listing of patron saints by subject (e.g. patron saint of athletes):

Guidelines for Selecting a Confirmation Sponsor

All candidates for Confirmation are presented to the bishop by a sponsor, who “is to take care that the person confirmed behaves as a true witness of Christ and faithfully fulfills the duties inherent in this sacrament” (Code of Canon Law, canon 892). This is a lifelong commitment on the part of the sponsor. A sponsor should be actively living out the Catholic Faith and serve as a role model for you.

The sponsor must be at least sixteen years of age, a practicing Catholic who will help you fulfill the responsibilities of Confirmation, and someone who has already received the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist. The sponsor cannot be a parent of the candidate.

In addition, the sponsor should meet the following qualifications:

- Practicing Catholic who attends Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation;
- If married, current marriage is a valid Catholic marriage;
- Is not cohabiting; that is, living together without marriage.
- Be living a life that is not publicly gravely inconsistent with the teachings of the Catholic Church.

A PARENT MAY NOT BE A SPONSOR, though they may present their child to the Bishop as a proxy in the event the candidate’s sponsor is unable to be present for the Confirmation Mass.

Saint Report: Interviewing a Saint

Due April 23, 2021

The saints lived heroic lives of doing acts of service for God and others. They provide us with examples of how we can be people of service, charity, and obedience to God's commandments and people who express the Faith by what we do. Many saints also spread the Catholic faith by their words. They were willing to defend the message of Christ against the attacks of those who defame or distort the truths of God. Armed with the gifts of the Holy Spirit, the saints were given the strength and courage to defend the Faith, even to the point of physical death (i.e., martyrdom).

Write a newspaper article, in the form of an interview, based on your saint's life. The responses should be written in the first person (that is, use the word I as in; I had a devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary from a young age). Show how the saint spread and/or defended the Faith through action and/or words, using the interview questions provided below. You may want to consult reference material available in your school, your parish library, from the office of the director of religious education, and online. The reference material may contain quotations that you can use in your article (but make sure you quote the source at the end of your report). Reports must be handwritten!!

Remember that the goal of this particular article is to point out how the saint spread and/or defended the Faith through action and/or word.

Good reporters know how to interview persons who are knowledgeable about certain topics. Efficient reporters think about questions they can ask during an interview. Good interviewers also try to think of questions during the interview itself. Some of the answers from the person being interviewed may provoke questions that were not formulated before the interview.

The following questions must be asked during your interview:

- What is your special calling in the Church? What kind of work do you do?
- How have the gifts of the Holy Spirit, strengthened in the sacrament of Confirmation, helped you in your special calling in the Church?

- Describe an instance where you were rejected or ridiculed by people as a result of living out your special calling in the church.
- What role have the corporal and spiritual works of mercy played in your efforts to spread or defend the Catholic faith?

Choose any 1 question from the following list to ask during your interview:

- Do any members of your religious community, family, parish, or friends encourage and support you in your good works?
- Have there been times when your work has not gone well?
- Are there occasions when you have thought that your work, in cooperation with God's grace, has gone very well?
- Have you ever thought that God has worked through you to bring others closer to Him?
- Do you ever have the opportunity to explain the Faith to those whom you are helping?

Then, ask an original question of your own...one which you come up with based on what you have learned about the saint. The question must be one of substance, dealing with the faith. Therefore simple questions such as "Where were you born," "When were you born," and the like are not allowed.

Finally, conclude with an original (you make it up yourself) prayer to your patron saint requesting their assistance as you prepare for Confirmation

[Many thanks to Mr. Mike Turk for providing this outline]

GUIDELINES FOR SERVICE HOURS for Confirmation Candidates

The goal of service hours is to encourage young people to be “Christ-like” in His love for others. Jesus served and prayed for those in need not to feel good about Himself, but out of love for them and in order to teach us all how to love. Service is not just a job to be done to fulfill a requirement, but something to help the student realize that serving others should be a life-long commitment. Through completion of service hours, the students will hopefully develop a sense of unity with others (solidarity). Also, it is hoped the hours related to personal prayer will inspire the young people to develop or improve their prayer life. Each candidate for Confirmation must complete a total of 20 service hours* spread out over the 7th and 8th grade years. Candidates who attend Catholic School are exempt from the service hours requirement.

*The twenty hours are a minimum; students are encouraged to exceed this amount.

1. Church Service Hours (5 hours)

- Candidates may sign up via the Religious Education Office for service events such as First Communion Retreat, Confirmation reception, volunteer in a CCD classroom, etc.
- Other parish events are available such as Knights of Columbus events, the Parish Picnic, Breakfast with Santa or the Senior Luncheons. The Religious Education Office will inform candidates of volunteer opportunities and will have contact information for each event/activity.

2. Prayer Service Hours (10 hours)

Ten prayer service hours are required to complete the student’s preparation for Confirmation and should be spread out over the two year (7th and 8th grade) preparation period. (NOTE: you must participate in at least 3 different prayer opportunities e.g. you may not complete all 10 hours praying the Rosary)

The parent or neighbor witnessing the service should sign your service hours log.
